

Abstract:

Effective Literacy Instruction for Adolescents

This is a position paper on adolescent literacy instruction that the National Reading Conference (now called the Literacy Research Association) commissioned as a means of informing policy makers and the general public about what is important in the teaching of reading in the middle grades and high school.

Full document available for downloading at this web site:

<http://uga.academia.edu/DonnaAlvermann>